Soccer

688-3667 • athletics@peoriaparks.org

Soccer is a Kick!

Soccer is a sport every youngster can have fun playing while learning about teamwork, developing individual skills and maintaining a good level of physical fitness. This recreational league allows each child to participate in every game. The size of the ball and field are proportional to the age of the participants to help foster soccer skills, rule knowledge and game strategies.

Registration Information

Registration will be taken up to March 13 or until league is full. There will be a $5 late fee for registering after March 13. Registrations received after league fills will be placed on a wait list. Players will then be placed as openings become available. There will also be no special requests considered on these late registrations.

• Special requests are not guaranteed, but will be honored if possible and are limited to ONE request per child.

• Forming teams with multiple players will not be permitted.

• NOTE: Fridays may be utilized as make up days.

Mandatory PAC Meeting

There will be a mandatory PAC (Parent-Athlete-Coach) meeting held at Lakeview Recreation Center for all players (except Varsity) and their parents (see chart for date/time). This is where you will meet your coach, find out when the first practice is, and get your schedule. We will not be phoning or mailing you this information, so it is critical to attend.

Uniform/Equipment

REQUIRED: Shin guards provided by player

RECOMMENDED: Soccer cleats, shorts

PROVIDED: T-shirt and participation award.

Varsity players also get socks.

Soccer Skills Camp (Grades K-5)

Come out for this soccer clinic by the Peoria Park District and FC Peoria. Work on dribbling, passing, shooting and ball handling. Soccer shin guards are required. Cleats are recommended. Fee-R/NR: $25/35
